

Article 4

We maintained the provisions of the National Health and Welfare as well as the national off-track vehicle benefit.

Employees on the former C&O maintain their hospital association.

The National Off-Track vehicle benefit pays additional monies if you are injured while traveling for the company in personal or company vehicle under order of the company (Deadheading).